

Mr McGuire

Thank you for your concern and help. I do want my friend Moriah to be safe. She lives at this place [directions] and I don't think there are guards. She has two new friends, Sophia and Ambrose, that seem very fun but she thinks they may be trouble. She works in office as mayor all day, but take relaxing walks in evening. I used to walk with her, but she walks alone now.

People say she has boyfriend, but I only met him once. He lives far away. I don't like him much. His people fight our people. Her magic is kind that finds stuff out so I guess she knows that. She can blow stuff up too, so that a good thing, but she never protects herself. The people we used to fight hurt her so easy.

She cannot do that undead magic and that is a good thing! I hate those zombies. I was better and I used to protect her. Now no one does so I hope you can. Her friends that Newman used to know don't seem to do that much. They are Cleric Jerok, Elf wizard Binoll, little thief Amaryllis, gnome musician Beales, and Elf Dragon Thuynder. He left us, but the others are still around. I can tell you where they live too. [Directions]. Anything else you want to know just ask me.

Thank you, you are so wise to see that she needs help. I am glad I met you in that Inn.

Newman